DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

To have a general inventive concept under PCT rule 13.1, the inventions need to be linked by a special technical feature. The special technical feature recited in claim 5 is drawn to an IL-12 production-inducing agent. In view of this Yagita et al. (In Vivo Vol. 16(1) p. 49-54 2002) reads on the claim. Yagita et al. teaches substances derived from Basidiomycetes which can induce the production of IL-12 (see Abstract). Therefore the technical feature recited in claim 5 is not special. Accordingly the groups are not so linked as to form a single general concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in response to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-4 and 9-11, drawn to an examination method to predict prognostic effects in immunotherapy for pancreas cancer, comprising determination of intrinsic IL-12 producing ability.

Group II, claim(s) 5 and 12-14, drawn to an IL-12 production-inducing agent that is administered to a pancreatic cancer patient having IL-12 producing ability of less than 7.8 pg/ml.

Group III, claim(s) 6-8 and 15, drawn to a cancer therapeutic agent comprising Gemcitabine Hydrochloride as a principle component, wherein the agent is used at least in combination with an IL-12 production-inducing agent.

Art Unit: 1643

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: As set forth above, in view of the teaching of Yagita et al, the groups are not so linked as to form a single general concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because the technical feature of claim 5 is not special.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter and different searches in the patent literature, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of an invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Meera Natarajan whose telephone number is 571-270-3058. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday, 8:30AM-6:00PM, ALT. Friday. EST.
